We strongly feel that every individual must find something they are passionate about. This is about contribution & performance. It's about doing more and making it last. If you're going to make a lasting contribution, then the activities that you're filling your job with have got to feed you.

Please answer the following questions, honestly, on another sheet of paper (type or handwritten)

*Describe any experiences or skills you have had which particularly qualify you for the position in which you are interested.

*Are you familiar with Chiropractic and what a Doctor of Chiropractic does? If yes, give a brief explanation. If not, are you willing to learn about Chiropractic and its role in the health care system?

*What type of work environment do you prefer to work in?

*What color best describes your personality?

*What would you say are your strengths that you would bring to the team? What makes you special and unique? What are your weaknesses (we all have weaknesses) ☺

*What hobbies do you enjoy?
